

Soap! Soap! Soap!

EVERY TOILET SOAP YOU SEE ADVERTISED IS IN STOCK HERE

ALMOND EMOLLIENT TOILET SOAP—

Very fragrant, healing and dainty, 3 bars for 50c
Armour's English Elder Flower

Bath Soap, big bars.....2 bars for 25c
Woodbury's Facial Soap

Pear's Glycerine Soap

Resinol Soap

Parke-Davis' Germicidal Soap

Lava Soap (for Mechanics)
Silverware Soap (polishes it)
Lister's Dog Soap

EVERY OTHER SOAP YOU READ ABOUT

Local Brevities

J. W. Harper, the second-hand man, has taken unto himself a Ford. Mrs. W. S. Beard and family returned from a week's visit at Tuba City last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Raudebaugh spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Carter, at the Greenlaw ranch.

Mrs. Carl Bazell, of Winslow, and her sister, Miss Elva Howell, of Navajo, are here, visiting their uncle, Dave Lovell.

Miss Mary Francis, Miss Kathryn Keller, Carl Steckel and Mr. Spencer motored to Tolchaco and back Monday afternoon.

Paul S. Coffin, of Wilson & Coffin, the plumbers, is spending the week in Los Angeles, placing orders for a carload of plumbers' supplies.

E. C. Mills and family are just back from a trip down the Grand Falls road. They report it to be in excellent condition, and the falls running full.

Charles E. Howard, a sheepman of many years standing, and K. K. Kuntz, a land lawyer of Phoenix, were in Flagstaff Saturday and returned on one of the delayed trains.

T. J. Fitzmorris, who was in Flagstaff Wednesday from Cliffs, says Mrs. Fitzmorris, who is visiting her daughters near Fresno, Cal., is reported as being quite seriously ill.

Frank Dickerson, who in his younger days was a well-known outlaw catcher—and could catch them now if there were any and that was his job—came up the first of the week from Verde, where he is a partner in the Apache Maid cattle outfit.

E. M. Polson, of Williams, was in Flagstaff Monday.

C. P. Brown, of Chandler, Ariz., is now clerking at Will Marlar's drug store, having started in last Friday.

Joe F. Schmidt, jeweler at Kahl's drug store, is proudly proclaiming an increase in the number to feed at home. The newcomer is a dog, named "Spot."

Frank Purcell, member of the state sheep sanitary board and a partner of George Babbitt in the sheep business in Navajo county, was in Flagstaff Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mullen and daughter, Cecile, and S. E. Stretton, of Ray, who are spending part of the summer at Oak Creek, were at the Weatherford Hotel over the week-end, and called on several of their Flagstaff friends.

J. D. Brown, the Ash Fork cattleman, with Mrs. Brown, spent from Thursday to Monday at the Weatherford Hotel. Mrs. H. B. White's niece, Mrs. F. A. Burg, went back with them to visit for two weeks at the home of Wm. Pitts.

Urban J. Lewis, who mixes more or less palatable prescriptions at the Kahl drug store, was limping around Monday morning and explained that his lameness was caused by a horse-back ride to Oak Creek and back, the day before. He insists that he went alone.

Dr. R. J. Hight, state veterinarian, has been making an inspection trip through the northern part of the state for several days, leaving for the south Saturday. He says there was nothing in the hog cholera scare at Yuma and investigations there revealed many cases of intestinal troubles among swine herds, but that it was not a fatal affection.

Adolphus Blum, quite noted in his home town of Holbrook, was in Flagstaff Monday on business.

Henry Albers, the Flagstaff laundry man, went to Hopewell Monday on business, returning Tuesday.

Newton Berry, of Phoenix, is visiting old friends in Flagstaff this week, having come up to his old mountain home to cool off for a brief spell.

Mrs. M. H. Mansfield and son, John Miles, of Jerome, spent Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Connor, returning home Monday morning.

H. D. and J. G. Tillman, with their wives and Mrs. Leonard Schaeffer, of Indiana, and Ira Dougherty, attended a dance at old logging camp No. 12, Kendrick Park Saturday night.

Mrs. W. F. Jagers and children, who have been in California the past five months, will return to Flagstaff Sunday to spend a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lusk.

W. H. Switzer's sister, Mrs. W. J. Tetzlaff, and her two children, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Switzer for three weeks, returned on Monday to their home in Phoenix.

C. J. Curtis, proprietor of the Northern Arizona Motor Co., has been pretty much under the weather for several days, not being able to be at his place of business until the middle of this week.

Mr. Cooper, a sheepman of El Paso, has been in Flagstaff looking up bucks and made a purchase of a few carloads of Harry Hudspath, which were shipped to Texas this week in charge of Roxy Deuell.

Mitchell & Gunter, of the Flagstaff Garage, have sold a new Dodge truck to the Eagle Grocery. They also sold a new Dodge touring car to J. D. Brown, of Ash Fork. Mr. Gunter delivering it Saturday.

F. N. Pingrey, a prominent Winslow man, died last week of Bright's disease. He was an employee of the maintenance department of the Santa Fe. The funeral services were conducted by the Masonic order.

Mrs. C. O. Robinson and daughter, Miss Marjorie, left Monday for Seligman, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Al Sanford for a couple of weeks, after which they expect to return to Flagstaff.

Hon. E. S. Clark, of Prescott, was in Flagstaff Monday on legal business connected with the settlement between Dr. E. B. Perrin and Hughes & Son, a case that has been pending for some time in the superior court.

Frank Marks, who worked for Chas. Hubbell at Oraibi up to the time the latter was murdered and the store burned, is now clerking at the Herman store. Frank is a son of E. A. Marks, superintendent of the Oraibi Indian school.

Miss Pearl Munsey, nurse at the Milton hospital, went to Grand Canyon, Monday, for several days' sight-seeing, accompanied by Mrs. Morrison and her daughters, the Misses May and Ann, and Miss Ellabert Miller, all of Los Angeles.

Charles H. Burlock, the Mossback mines man, went to Kingman Saturday and from there to Los Angeles, where his family is at present, to take in the big review of the Pacific fleet. His family will return with him to live in their new home here.

W. E. Musgrave, of Phoenix, predatory animal inspector of the United States Biological Survey, who has been here for a couple of weeks, has gone to the southern part of the state on business connected with his department. Mrs. Musgrave remaining here.

Tom Shaunessey, at one time secretary of the State Fair Commission, now dealer in auto accessories at Phoenix, was in Flagstaff Saturday on a short visit to old-time friends. He had been looking over the oil fields at Holbrook and Winslow and was on his way back to Phoenix.

Charles Lehr, one of the best plumbers that ever slapped a pipe together, returned Monday via Maricopa, from Atlantic City, where he went as representative of Flagstaff Lodge No. 499, B. P. O. E., to the Grand Lodge. The washouts along the line caused him to circumnavigate considerable to get home.

On the way back from the Friday night dance at Lake Mary, Rile Lockett, Roger Morse and Miss Vivian Lockett (Rile driving) turned over on the curve the other side of the slaughter house. None of the party were injured, though the car was somewhat damaged, among other things the windshield and top being broken.

J. "Duff" Brown and wife were in Flagstaff last Saturday from their home near Ash Fork. Duff was enjoying the rain in his shirt sleeves, claiming that the only overcoat he ever had, along back in 1884 in Texas, he traded to an Indian for a blanket and lost the blanket. Since then he had never had time to bother with one.

The report that Harry Richwine, of the local post-office force, will be compelled to change his name after January 1, 1920, is denied by him. Harry says that the report gained currency because of the air-tight prohibition law which is expected to go into effect on that date, but that since he never gets into a "foment," he does not believe he will have to knock the final "e" off and substitute a "d."

Jack Chisholm presented The Sun with a unique German souvenir in the shape of an ash receiver all inscribed with "Gott Mit Uns," which, translated into English, was meant by the Germans to announce that "God is with us." Jack says that this stood as per announcement until the Americans reached them at Chateau Thierry, when the Germans told them that God went over to the Americans.

"Billy" Cliff Kramer, who has been doing sealing and marking trees on the F. L. M. timber sale for the Forest Service, was compelled to resign on the advice of his physician as the work was too heavy for him in his present condition. Billy received several minor injuries while in France from helping to do a horse's work in getting his machine gun up to the front, and it will be some time before he will regain his old-time physical vigor.

E. A. Sawyer, miner, sheepman and rancher, was in Flagstaff Tuesday from his headquarters at Winslow.

G. N. Baty has secured the contract for repainting and renovating the dining hall and Bury Hall at the Normal school.

Miss Amanda Chingrin, field matron of the Indian service at Phoenix, is spending her vacation in Flagstaff, having arrived last week.

J. J. Waldhaus has sold one of his new carload of Oldsmobile Economy trucks to Frank Prendergrass, one of the most progressive of the many up-to-date Doney Park farmers.

Mrs. Ethel Saunders, Miss Pearl Lyles, Miss June Blumenthal, Charlie Nichols, Harry Paulstone and Ersel Stevens went to Sunset mountain on Sunday, sightseeing and picnicing.

A monument erected in honor of Francis Heron, who lost his life in the service, was unveiled at Winslow Sunday, the ceremonies being in charge of the Frank Perkins Post of the American Legion.

Mrs. McAllister, a former resident of Flagstaff but recently from the southern part of the state, is the guest of Mrs. Woolfolk this week. She has many old friends who are pleased to see her again.

George Babbitt and family returned last Saturday from Tuba City and Kayenta. They met with an accident between Kayenta and Tuba, breaking an axle on their auto, which delayed them a day in getting back to Flagstaff.

W. M. Cook, state leader of the county agricultural agents and member of the faculty of the Arizona State University, arrives the latter part of this week, and will attend the meeting, tomorrow afternoon, of the Coconino Farm Bureau.

At the teachers' examination, conducted by the county superintendent of schools, Miss Lenore Francis, on Monday and Tuesday, there were 20 applicants for new or higher grade certificates. Most of them were summer students at the Normal.

County Attorney F. M. Gold went to Holbrook yesterday to arrange for the trial in the damage suit of Col. Wm. E. Beck ("Cyclone Bill") against O. M. Flake. It is the outgrowth of injuries sustained by the colonel about a year ago in a runaway, the horse belonging to Flake, a liveryman.

Among those from Flagstaff taking in the baseball game at Williams on Sunday were: Walter J. Stevenson, Paul Keller, Miss Mary Hanley, Mrs. Frank Hanley and daughter, Miss Minnie Enright, Miss Clara Belle Douglas, Earl Heckethorn, Mays Widener and Joe Hanley.

James H. Roberts, who recently returned from France, where he has been helping clean up Huns, came to Flagstaff Tuesday and while he was not looking, a gang of Elks took him into their corral and stuck antlers on him. There were no objections on his part, for he rather feared they would when he came to Flagstaff.

R. E. Marsh, former supervisor of the Coconino National Forest, who had been vacationing with his family in California, dropped into town this week for a couple of days. Mrs. Marsh joined him here last night, and the two will go to Albuquerque the last of this week, where Mr. Marsh will be assistant district forester, in charge of silviculture.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnston and their two children set out early on Wednesday morning in their car for Los Angeles, to enjoy Mr. Johnston's vacation from his duties as city clerk. They planned to make the trip out in four days, which will be very good time, but the weather is all in their favor, and the chances are that they will have no occasion to hunt for mule teams to pull them out of the mud.

County Attorney Laney, wife and child, of Phoenix, arrived in Flagstaff Wednesday evening from Grand Canyon in their auto. Mr. Laney says they had been fortunate in their trip overland so far and had not been stuck in the mud, though there were many others whom they passed on the road. The Laney's expect to remain here a couple of weeks to enjoy the cool mountain breezes.

Z. A. Bissonnette, proprietor of the Reliable Spring & Auto Co., announces his opening in this issue. Fred Metz, who since coming out of the army had been working for the Greenlaw Lumber Co., is manager of the new store. Mrs. Bissonnette will be in charge of the free information department, a unique feature that it is felt will be of assistance to tourists and particularly appeal to the lady tourists.

A. A. Foster, with C. A. Black's big store, accompanied by Mrs. Foster, went to Doney Park Sunday to set up a binder bought from Mr. Black by S. H. Snow. Mr. Foster says the crops out that way are looking splendid. An evidence of the growth in farming in this section and the success attending it is to be found in the fact that though only four binders were sold from that store last year, Mr. Black has sold six this year and had orders for four which he has been unable to deliver.

Lawrence C. Guyton, of Beaver Creek, was here yesterday. He enlisted in March, 1917, and was overseas for 19 months, being with Battery D, 21st Artillery, Fifth Division, at St. Mihiel and in the Argonne. Allen, his oldest brother, was also here yesterday, on his way to California to take vocational training. He was wounded in France, one of his arms being permanently stiff as a result. There are three boys in the family, all having been in the army. The youngest did not get into the fighting.

At the meeting of the Coconino Farm Bureau tomorrow, among the matters to be discussed is the purchase by the farmers of their own flour mill. A representative of one of the manufacturers of flour mills will be present. The farmers' committee met Tuesday with Mr. Horn, whose plans for putting a mill in here seem to have gone amiss, but they did not come to any terms with him in the proposed purchase of his partly finished building and the milling machinery. The latter is still on the track, accumulating demurrage of $10 a day.

We Aim To Please You In Every Detail

Fit, material, workmanship, style, good looks—in each and every one of these we guarantee to satisfy and please you.

We Tailor For You
Personally

Gassman

EFFICIENCY CLEANING SERVICE
CLEANING
'WORKS'

J. H. Harper, the second-hand store man, spent yesterday in Winslow.

Thos. E. Pollock is in Holbrook for a couple of days, going down Wednesday night.

The New White Garage has installed a complete equipment for charging, re-charging, repairing and rebuilding batteries. Al Alverset is in charge of the electrical department.

Miss Irene Moats, of Goodland, Kans., daughter of Mrs. Nelson, manager of the Style Shop, arrived here the first of the week and will assist her mother in the store.

R. M. Gassman, of St. Paul, who had been here visiting his son, S. J. Gassman, returned home a few days ago. Sidney's sister Miss Bernadine, who came here with her father, is still here.

H. David Evans, who conducts the well-known preparatory school at Mesa, is back from a month's trip through New Mexico and Iowa, and will spend the rest of the summer at his vacation quarters near this city.

The collision yesterday between Bud Bader, driving the Bader grocery car, and the Eagle Grocery truck, was not the result of any business rivalry, but merely an accident. The truck was a little too much for the lighter Bader car, which had a fender smashed.

H. D. McVey, district manager, and A. E. Goodwin, district plant chief, of the Mountain States Telegraph & Telephone Co., are expected in town the last of this week, coming overland. Mr. McVey apparently undismayed by his sad experience in mud and rain during his last trip up this way.

Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Fronsky were expected to arrive home this week from Ludington, Mich., where Mrs. Fronsky and the children have been for some time, the doctor joining them there about three weeks ago; but Mrs. Fronsky is ill and their return has been postponed until she has recovered.

Babbitt Brothers' new bargain basement opens to the public today, and all the clerks got a good long sleep last night in readiness for the expected rush of bargain buyers today. R. J. Connor, manager of the dry-goods department, has the bargain basement in charge, and has been working almost night and day for several weeks to have everything in readiness for the opening. This is an innovation here, but has been a very popular feature of many of the big-city stores, notably the Marshall-Field store of Chicago, for a good many years.

FIXING UP AT BABBITT'S

Babbitt Bros. are making extensive improvements in their store building. The Aspen avenue front is to be splatter-dashed, the work having already begun. C. J. Kilmer and L. W. Davy, incorporated as the Arizona Construction Co., have the contract. Mr. Kilmer is a contractor and civil engineer of many years' experience; Mr. Davy is a civil engineer, formerly in government service.

W. H. Morse has the contract for painting the windows and cornices on the outside of the store. He has just finished painting in the grocery and meat departments, and will paint the halls and water tank as soon as extensive repairs planned for the roof are completed.

OLD RESIDENT VISITS CITY

Mrs. Roeder, of Oakland, Cal., has been the guest of Mrs. G. F. Manning for several days, leaving Wednesday for her home. Mrs. Roeder's husband built the A. L. & T. saw mill here a good many years ago when they made Flagstaff their home. She has been visiting relatives in Michigan for the past two months and stopped off to see Flagstaff again after 19 years' absence. Mrs. Roeder found a vast improvement in the place since her last visit and could hardly realize it was the same place.

RALPH ELLINWOOD HERE

Ralph Ellinwood and Mr. Hall, a former classmate of his at Amherst college, who had been house guests at J. M. Riordan's home for about a week, left the other day for Jerome, on a visit. Mr. Hall is from Boston, and the two are touring around the West, Ralph initiating his friend into the mysteries of the West in return for a like service rendered him by Mr. Hall in the East during past school vacations.

LOTS OF POTATO BLIGHT

Dr. Bartlett, assistant state entomologist, says there is a great deal of potato blight in the Doney Park and Black Bill Park sections, seemingly more there than elsewhere, although he has not visited all sections of the county. He says that earlier spraying would have prevented, or at least stopped the blight, and advises that all fields affected with it be now sprayed at once, to hold it in check.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fay are entertaining the latter's sister, Miss Catherine Howard, of Phoenix.

SEE THIS LIST!

HIRES ROOT BEER
ORANGE CRUSH
LOGANBERRY
COCA COLA
VAL BLATZ BARMA
CONCORD GRAPE
GINGER ALE
AND OTHER
SODA BEVERAGES
IN ALL FLAVORS
All bottled in Flagstaff; made of Pure Syrups and our own pure water.
Always ask for—

TOP='O'=PEAK

Brand

The Skylight City Bottling Wks.

F. E. BROOKS, Proprietor
Phone 81

T. A. RIORDAN, President
I. B. KOCH, Vice-Pres., Manager

M. J. RIORDAN, Secretary

ARIZONA

Lumber & Timber Company

ESTABLISHED 1881

MANUFACTURERS OF

Native Pine Lumber, Props, Stulls.

Piling, Ties, Lagging, Boxes,
Lath; Shingles, Sash
and Doors

FLAGSTAFF

ARIZONA